Johnson Huddles With Key Aides

CPYRGHT

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP).—President Johnson conferred with key advisers on the critical Dominican situation for an hour today but the White House kept silence on just what aspects were principally under study.

Specifically, press secretary George E. Reedy would not go into the question whether concern over the possibility of a Communist takeover in the Caribbean nation was a major reason for the gathering.

The morning meeting in the Cabinet room, Mr. Reedy said, brought together Mr. Johnson, Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Undersecretary of State George Ball, Undersecretary of Defense Cyrus Vance, CIA Director William F. Raborn Jr., and Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

After the meeting, Mr. Rusk said the bloody rebellion may have "some aspects of a Communist view it as a "second Communist movement" but he does

He also reported on the situation at a closed meeting of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

SEEK OAS ACTION

Mr. Rusk said he was keeping in close touch with developments and the United States was pushing efforts to get action on a resolution by the Organization of American States calling for an immediate cease-fire in Santo Domingo.

"We hope very much that peace can be restored as quickly as possible," Mr. Rusk said.
